Dear Harold,

5-1-95

Enclosed are a couple items from this past Sunday's (April 30, 1995) N.Y. Times. It appears Mailer is pretty much getting the same uncritical attention Posner got. No surprise from the Times. The article on Jesse Oswald is a bit more interesting. And, finally, Hank-Irons called my attention to a brief write-up of a big skeleton in Mailer's closet. It is from the Quality Paperback Bookclub Desk Calender for 1995.

Take care, and regards to Lillian.

Best,
Gerry
